QUEEN OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY CHURCH

THE SOCIETY OF SAINT PIUS X

November 12, 2023 A.D. – Twenty-fourth Sunday After Pentecost

Hospitality

“Let the charity of the brotherhood abide in you and hospitality do not forget; for by this some, being not aware of it, have entertained angels.” (Heb. 13, 1-2)

“Wherefore receive one another, as Christ also hath received you unto the honor of God.” (Rom. 15, 7)

Gregorian Latin liturgy

Until 1969, the various Catholic liturgies were all of apostolic origin. The Gregorian Latin liturgy, celebrated in this church, follows the tradition of Saint Peter, the first Pope, and has never undergone any essential change till the present time. Every gesture, every word has been weighed and measured with the assistance of the Holy Ghost for the greatest glory of God and the salvation of souls.

Welcome Visitors!

We thank you for coming. Whether you are just visiting us for a brief time, looking for a spiritual home, are returning to the practice of the Catholic faith or are interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church; we are happy to have you here, as you are.

Please take time to read this bulletin, to meet with the priest after Mass and to socialize. Enter the Holy Temple of the Good Lord to worship Him. Pax vobis! Peace be with you!

News and Announcements

Today we celebrate the Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost (resumed Fifth Sunday After Epiphany). In the Gospels for the preceding Sundays after Epiphany, our Lord's Divinity was shown forth by His miracles. Today it is affirmed through His doctrine, which filled the Jews of Nazareth with wonder. Christ is our King, for He welcomes not only Jews but also Gentiles into His kingdom. Called through pure mercy to share in the mystical Body of Christ, we must then in our turn, show mercy to our neighbor since we are made one with him in Christ Jesus. In doing this we shall have need of patience, since in God's kingdom here on earth there are both good and bad, and it is only when our Lord comes to judge men, as described in the last Sunday of the temporal cycle, that He will separate the one from the other for all Eternity.

Today Fr. Pieroni will offer Adult Catechism following Holy Mass and the second collection will be for the building fund.

St. Josaphat was born in Lithuania about 1580 into a Catholic family and promoted Catholic unity in a country divided between Orthodox and Catholic since 1054. After being elected Catholic archbishop of Polotsk in 1614 and clinging firmly to unity with Rome, he opposed those who saw unity only in Latin terms and would suppress Byzantine traditions. On November 12, schismatics broke into the house where he was staying, shouting hatred and violence. When he confronted them, he was twice struck in the head with a halberd and shot. He was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1867, and obtained from God the conversion of his murderers.

St. Albert the Great was born in Lauingen, Germany. He was known as the "teacher of everything there is to know," was a scientist long before the age of science, and became the teacher and mentor of St. Thomas Aquinas. In his latter years, he resided in Cologne and took part in the Council of Lyons in 1274. In his old age, St. Albert traveled to Paris to defend the teaching of St. Thomas Aquinas. He died in Cologne on November 15, 1280, and was canonized and declared a Doctor of the Church in 1931 by Pope Pius XI.

St. Gregory the Wonderworker was born about A.D. 200 at Neo-Cesarea in Pontus, and became bishop of his native city. Famous for his sanctity and doctrine, he became still more so by the prodigies and miracles which God multiplied in such a manner throughout his life, that he was surnamed Thaumaturgus, or worker of miracles. One day he commanded a mountain to move, so as to leave sufficient room for the building of a church, and the command was obeyed.

November 18th is the Feast of the Dedication of the Basilicas of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul. This feast combines the standard celebration of the dedication of a church for St. Peter's Basilica and the Basilica of Saint Paul Outside the Walls, which were both built by the Emperor Constantine the Great during the 4th century. These sites had already been visited by pilgrims for over a century when the basilicas were built to honor the apostles buried there.

Remaining special indulgences in November for praying for Poor Souls and for visiting cemeteries (Enchiridion Indulgentiarum 1999, n. 29):

A partial indulgence, applicable only to the souls in purgatory, is granted to the faithful who (1) devoutly visit a cemetery and at least mentally pray for the dead; or (2) devoutly recite lauds or vespers from the Office of the Dead or the prayer Eternal Rest.

To receive Holy Communion :

- You must be a baptized Catholic, having made a good confession since the last committed mortal sin - if any - in order to hopefully be in the state of Grace.
- You must believe in the doctrine of Transubstantiation. “For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself” (1 Cor. 11:29).
- You must observe one hour of Eucharistic fast (except water and medicine. However, we advise to abstain from food and alcohol for three hours and one hour for other liquid before Holy Communion).
- One must not be a public sinner (public adulterer, concubine, public homosexual), or excommunicated, or interdicted.

- The most important requirement is to have a great desire to receive the Body, the Blood, the Soul and the Divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ. You can humbly approach the Communion rail at any time after the Communion of the priest. Then, open your mouth wide and extend smoothly and horizontally your tongue. There is no special order, so that nobody should feel compelled to follow a general movement. Do not judge your neighbor who abstains from receiving Holy Communion, as there is no obligation to receive it daily. However, “Live in a manner to be able to receive communion every day!” (St. Augustine)
- In this Church, the faculty to absolve sins is directly granted to the priests by the Holy Father.

“I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship.” Rm 12:1

Out of respect for Our Lord Jesus Christ and for the edification of our neighbor, we beg all to appear in Church decent in deportment and modest in dress.

However, no one has the right to question others, especially visitors. It belongs to the parish priest alone to instruct the laity when they repeatedly dress or deport below expectation.

For gentlemen and lads: Neither shorts, T-shirts nor sneakers meet the norms of modesty.

For ladies and girls: Neither shorts, slacks, sleeveless, short nor low-cut dresses meet the norms of modesty.

Furthermore, according to apostolic custom or Church law, gentlemen are bareheaded in church; and ladies are requested to cover their heads.

Thank you for your charity.
