

"I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship." (Rom. 12, 1)

Out of respect for Our Lord Jesus Christ and for the edification of our neighbor, we beg all to appear in Church decent in deportment and modest in dress.

However, no one has the right to question others, especially visitors. It belongs to the parish priest alone to instruct the laity when they repeatedly dress or deport below expectation.

For gentlemen and lads: Neither shorts, T-shirts nor sneakers meet the norms of modesty.

For ladies and girls: Neither shorts, slacks, sleeveless, short nor low-cut dresses meet the norms of modesty.

Furthermore, according to apostolic custom or Church law, gentlemen are bareheaded in church; and ladies are requested to cover their heads.

Thank you for your charity.

First Sunday of Advent – Violet (I)

St. Anthony Mary Claret

Gregorian Latin liturgy

Until 1969, the various Catholic liturgies were all of apostolic origin. The Gregorian Latin liturgy, celebrated in this church, follows the tradition of Saint Peter, the first Pope, and has never undergone any essential change till the present time. Every gesture, every word has been weighed and measured with the assistance of the Holy Ghost for the greatest glory of God and the salvation of souls.

Welcome Visitors!

We thank you for coming. Whether you are just visiting us for a brief time, looking for a spiritual home, are returning to the practice of Catholic faith or are interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church; we are happy to have you here, as you are.

Please take time to read this bulletin, to meet with the priest after Mass and to socialize.

Enter the Holy Temple of the Good Lord to worship Him. Pax vobis! Peace be with you!

Hospitality

"Let the charity of the brotherhood abide in you and hospitality do not forget; for by this some, being not aware of it, have entertained angels." (Heb. 13, 1-2) "Wherefore receive one another, as Christ also hath received you unto the honor of God." (Rom. 15, 7)

News and Announcements

The second collection this week is for the St. Anthony Mary Claret Building Fund. 100% of these monies will stay with the chapel and be used for the maintenance of and improvements to our chapel. The second collection next week will be for the Foreign Missions Program.

A special collection is to be taken up on Sunday, December 5th, 2021, for the Foreign Missions Program. These funds help all the various missions in Africa, Asia, Eastern Europe, South America, Mexico, and others to operate their apostolates.

The Sanctuary Lamp lighting can be dedicated for a special intention. Please contact (850) 842-2406 or sspxnwfl@gmail.com if you are interested. Donations are $15.00 and dedication slots are available.

The Gift & Book Shoppe: This month's spotlight items are geared towards the Kingship of Christ and the Holy Souls in Purgatory. Pick up a new book and learn more! Do your Christmas gift shopping with us this year! The new 2022 calendars have just arrived, as have brand new vehicle window decals. We are taking special orders for Advent candles and statues though there are a few available on the shelves. We will have many Christmas items in stock by the end of the month. All monies spent in the bookstore stay inhouse to support St Anthony Mary Claret parish.

Altar Server Training is occurring on a regular basis. Boy or man, beginner or emcee, your service to Our Lord is welcome. Please contact Steven Hanson for more details.

Please pray for all of our sick and homebound, especially Fr. Gregory Post, Richard Hand, Judy Hand, Marcia Gullede, Vic Penn and Fran Penn.

Please pray for the eternal repose of the souls of Fr. Dominique Bourmaud, Barbara Grimaldi, Rod Frantz, Carlos Alberto Sandigo, Doña Martha Flores and Martin Paul Hanson.

Are your last wishes going to be honored? Consider these questions:

In what church will your funeral take place? What will be the liturgy?

Who will make the correct moral decisions for you if you not be able to do so?

Did you wish to bequeath to your church?

Do not leave your final arrangements to strangers!

Make a Last Will, appoint an Attorney and make your final desires known!

If you have specific questions, please contact your church or priest.

The Thought... – He was and IS rejected...

The night He was born, – no one had room for Him.

Shortly after His Birth Herod Frantically tried to Kill Him.

A Little Child of Eternity came to save men from themselves and from destruction eternal.

He walked alone the Hills of Poverty and human Neglect.

He loved, He blessed. No one was excluded.

Men sprang at Him like wolves and nailed him to a cross.

Down through the ages, He still seeks a place in human hearts.

But many hearts are ashamed of Him. They rarely speak of Him. He is still excluded from their love. He still Blesses but they refuse to listen.

At Christmas Time, – His Birthday time – They give gifts, – exchange greetings, but scarcely murmur the Name of the Little King.

Give gifts – at Christmas Time – but Give the right Gifts. Give them the Priceless Gift and you give them their very God. They need Him MOST.

“the bread that I will give, is my flesh.” (Jn. 6, 52)

To receive Holy Communion:

- You must be a baptized Catholic, having made a good confession since the last committed mortal sin - if any - in order to hopefully be in the state of Grace.

- You must believe in the doctrine of Transubstantiation. “For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself” (1 Cor. 11:29).

- You must observe one hour of Eucharistic fast (except water and medicine. However, we advise to abstain from food and alcohol for three hours and one hour for other liquid before Holy Communion).

- One must not be a public sinner (public adulterer, concubine, public homosexual), or excommunicated, or interdicted.

- The most important requirement is to have a great desire to receive the Body, the Blood, the Soul and the Divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ.

You can humbly approach the Communion rail at any time after the Communion of the priest.

Then, open your mouth wide and extend smoothly and horizontally your tongue.

There is no special order, so that nobody should feel compelled to follow a general movement.

Do not judge your neighbor who abstains from receiving Holy Communion, as there is no obligation to receive it daily. However, “Live in a manner to be able to receive communion every day!” (St. Augustine)

In this Church, the faculty to absolve sins is directly granted to the priests by the Holy Father.

“The LORD is in his Holy Temple; let all the earth keep silence before Him.” (Hab. 2, 20)
