Aleph. How is the gold become dim, the finest colour is changed, the stones of the sanctuary are scattered in the top of every street? Beth. The noble sons of Sion and they that were clothed with the best gold: how are they esteemed as earthen vessels, the work of the potter's hands? Ghimel. Even the sea monsters have drawn out the breast, they have given suck to their young: the daughter of my people is cruel, like the ostrich in the desert. Daleth. The tongue of the sucking child hath stuck to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the little ones have asked for bread, and there was none to break it unto them. He. They that fed delicately have died in the streets; they that were brought up in scarlet have embraced the dung. Vau. And the iniquity of the daughter of my people is made greater than the sin of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment, and hands took nothing in her. Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Return unto the Lord thy God.

Remember, O Lord, what is come upon us: consider and behold our reproach. Our inheritance is turned to aliens: our houses to strangers. We are become orphans without a father, our mothers are as widows. We have drunk our water for money: we have bought our wood for a price. We were dragged by our necks, we were weary and no rest was given us. We have given our hand to Egypt and to the Assyrians, that we might be satisfied with bread. Our fathers have sinned, and are no more: and we have borne their iniquities. Servants have ruled over us: there was none to redeem us out of their hand. We fetched our bread at the peril of our lives, because of the sword in the desert. Our skin was burnt as an oven, by reason of the violence of the famine. They oppressed the women in Sion, and the virgins in the cities of Juda. Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Return unto the Lord thy God.

On Ps. 63, at verse 7

MAN shall come to a deep mind and God shall be exalted. They said, Who shall see us? The diligent searchers out of evil counsels have failed. A Man came to these very counsels, and suffered Himself to be taken, as Man. For He had not been taken at all, unless Man, or seen, unless Man, or smitten, unless Man, or crucified, or died, unless Man. Man therefore attained unto all these sufferings, which had not availed against Him, unless He had been a Man. But if He had not been Man, man had not been redeemed. Man came to a deep mind, that is, a secret mind; showing Manhood to men, and keeping Godhead within; veiling the form of God, wherein He is Equal to the Father, and presenting the form of a servant, inferior to the Father.

So they said to Pilate, “That seducer said, while still alive: After three days I shall rise again. Command therefore that the sepulchre be guarded until the third day, lest His disciples come and steal Him away, and say unto the people: He is risen from the dead; and the last error shall be worse than the first.” Pilate said to them: Ye have a guard; go, and guard him as ye know. So they went and secured the sepulchre with guards, sealing up the stone.

LESSON VI

POSUÉRUNT custódes mílites ad sepúlcrum. Concússa terra Dóminus resurrexit : mirácula facta sunt tália circa sepúlcrum, ut et ipsi mílites, qui custódes advénerant, testes fíerent, si vellent vera nuntiáre. Sed avarítia illa, quæ captivávit discipulum cómitem Christi, captivávit et mílitem custódem sepúlcri. Damus, ínquiunt, vobis pecúniám : et dícite quia vobis dormiéntibus venérunt discipuli ejus, et abstulérunt eum. Vere defecérunt scrutántes scrutatiónes. Quid est quod dixísti, o infélix astútia? Tantúmne déseris lucem consílii pietátis, et in profúnda versútiæ demérgeris, ut hoc dicas : Dícite quia vobis dormiéntibus venérunt discipuli ejus, et abstulérunt eum? Dormiéntes testes ádhibes : vere tu ipse obdormísti, qui scrutándo tália defecísti.

THEY set a watch of soldiers over the sepulchre. The earth shook and the Lord arose. Such wonders were wrought about the sepulchre that the very soldiers who kept watch might be witnesses thereto, would they declare the truth. But the same love of money that enslaved that disciple and companion of Christ, enslaved also the soldier guarding the sepulchre. "We will give you money," said the chief priests, "and say ye that His disciples came while ye slept and stole Him away." Verily, the diligent searchers out have failed. What didst thou say, O wretched craft? Wast thou indeed so utterly void of the light of godly wisdom, and confounded in the bottomless pit of thine own falsehood as to speak thus: Say ye that His disciples came while ye slept, and stole Him away? Thou callest upon sleeping witnesses: surely thou wast asleep thyself, who has failed in searching out so notable a matter.

For if the blood of goats and of oxen, and the ashes of a heifer being sprinkled, sanctify such as are defiled, to the cleansing of the flesh: How much more shall the Blood of Christ, who by the Holy Ghost offered Himself spotless unto God, cleanse our conscience from dead works, to serve the living God?

1. It is good to give praise to the Lord: and to sing to thy name, O most High.

2. To shew forth thy mercy in the morning,
and thy truth in the night:

3. Upon an instrument of ten strings, upon the psaltery: with a canticle upon the harp.

4. For thou hast given me, O Lord, a delight in thy doings: and in the works of thy hands I shall rejoice.

5. O Lord, how great are thy works! thy thoughts are exceeding deep.

6. The senseless man shall not know: nor will the fool understand these things.

7. When the wicked shall spring up as grass:
and all the workers of iniquity shall appear:

8. That they may perish for ever and ever:
but thou, O Lord, art most high for evermore.

9. For behold thy enemies, O Lord, for behold thy enemies shall perish: and all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

10. But my horn shall be exalted like that of the unicorn: and my old age in plentiful mercy.

11. My eye also hath looked down upon my enemies: and my ear shall hear of the downfall of the malignant that rise up against me.

12. The just shall flourish like the palm tree:

12. Justus, ut palma florébit : * sicut cedrus Líbani multiplicábitur.

13. Plantáti in domo Dómini, * in átriis domus Dei nostri florébunt.

14. Adhuc multiplicabúntur in senécta úberis : * et bene patiéntes erunt, ut annúntient :

15. Quóniam rectus Dóminus, Deus noster : * et non est iníquitas in eo.

he shall grow up like the cedar of Libanus.

13. They that are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of the house of our God.

14. They shall still increase in a fruitful old age: and shall be well treated, that they may shew,

15. That the Lord our God is righteous, and there is no iniquity in him.

Psalm 63.

1. Exáudi, De-us, orati-ónem me-am cum déprecor : * a timóre inimíci éripe ánimam me- am.

2. Protexísti me a convéntu malignántium : * a multitudíne operántium iniquitátem.

3. Quia exacuérunt ut gládium linguas suas : * intendérunt arcum rem amáram, ut sagíttent in occúltis immaculátum.

4. Súbito sagittábunt eum, et non timébunt : * firmavérunt sibi sermónem nequam.

5. Narravérunt ut absconderent láqueos : * dixerunt : Quis vidébit eos?

6. Scrutáti sunt iniquitátes : * defecerunt scrutántes scrutínio.

1. Hear, O God, my prayer, when I make supplication to thee: deliver my soul from the fear of the enemy.

2. Thou hast protected me from the assembly of the malignant; from the multitude of the workers of iniquity.

3. For they have whetted their tongues like a sword; they have bent their bow a bitter thing, to shoot in secret the undefiled.

4. They will shoot at him on a sudden, and will not fear: they are resolute in wickedness.

5. They have talked of hiding snares; they have said: Who shall see them?

6. They have searched after iniquities: they have

8. The arrows of children are their wounds: and their tongues against them are made weak.

9. All that saw them were troubled; and every man was afraid.

10. And they declared the works of God: and understood his doings.

11. The just shall rejoice in the Lord, and shall hope in him: and all the upright in heart shall be praised.

1. I said: In the midst of my days I shall go to the gates of hell:

2. I sought for the residue of my years. I said: I shall not see the Lord God in the land of the living.

3. I shall behold man no more, nor the inhabitant of rest.

4. My generation is at an end, and it is rolled away from me, as a shepherd's tent.

6. I hoped till morning, as a lion so hath he broken all my bones:

7. From morning even to night thou wilt make an end of me. I will cry like a young swallow, I will meditate like a dove:

8. My eyes are weakened looking upward:

9. Lord, I suffer violence, answer thou for me. What shall I say, or what shall he answer for me, whereas he himself hath done it?

10. I will recount to thee all my years in the bit-terness of my soul.

11. O Lord, if man's life be such, and the life of my spirit be in such things as these, thou shalt correct me, and make me to live. Behold in peace is my bitterness most bitter:

12. But thou hast delivered my soul that it should not perish, thou hast cast all my sins be-hind thy back.

13. For hell shall not confess to thee, neither shall death praise thee: nor shall they that go down into the pit, look for thy truth.

14. The living, the living, he shall give praise to thee, as I do this day: the father shall make thy truth known to the children.

15. O Lord, save me, and we will sing our psalms all the days of our life in the house of the Lord.
