“The Lord is in his Holy Temple; let all the earth keep silence before Him.” (Hab 2:20)

GREGORIAN LATIN LITURGY

Until 1969, the various Catholic liturgies were all of apostolic origin.

The Gregorian Latin liturgy, celebrated in this church, follows the tradition of Saint Peter, the first Pope, and has never undergone any essential change till the present time.

Every gesture, every word has been weighed and measured with the assistance of the Holy Ghost for the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

WELCOME VISITORS!

We thank you for coming. Whether you are just visiting us for a brief time, looking for a spiritual home, are returning to the practice of Catholic faith, or are interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church; we are happy to have you here, as you are.

Please take time to read this bulletin, to meet with the priest after Mass and to socialize. Enter the Holy Temple of the Good Lord to worship Him. Pax vobis! Peace be with you!

HOSPITALITY

“Let the charity of the brotherhood abide in you and hospitality do not forget; for by this some, being not aware of it, have entertained angels.” HEB. 13:1-2

“Wherefore receive one another, as Christ also hath received you unto the honor of God.” ROM. 15:7

“IT IS THE CHEERFUL GIVER GOD LOVES.” 2 COR 9:7

“I URGE YOU THEREFORE, BROTHERS, BY THE MERCIES OF GOD, TO OFFER YOUR BODIES AS A LIVING SACRIFICE, HOLY AND PLEASING TO GOD, YOUR SPIRITUAL WORSHIP.” Rom. 12:1

Out of respect for Our Lord Jesus Christ and for the edification of our neighbor, we beg all to appear in Church attired in decent deportment and modest dress.

However, no one has the right to question others, especially visitors. It belongs to the parish priest alone to instruct the laity when they repeatedly dress or deport below expectation.

For gentlemen and lads: Neither shorts, T-shirts, nor sneakers meet the norms of modesty. For ladies and girls: Neither shorts, slacks, sleeveless, nor short or low-cut dresses meet the norms of modesty.

Furthermore, according to apostolic custom or Church law, gentlemen are bareheaded in church, and ladies are requested to cover their heads.

Thank you for your charity.

“THE BREAD THAT I WILL GIVE, IS MY FLESH.” JN 6:52

To receive Holy Communion:

- One must be a baptized Catholic, having made a good confession since the last committed mortal sin - if any - in order to be in the state of Grace.

- One must believe in the doctrine of Transubstantiation. “For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself.” (1 Cor. 11:29)

- One must observe one hour of Eucharistic fast (Water and medicine do not break the fast. However, we advise to abstain from food and alcohol for three hours and one hour for other liquid before Holy Communion).

- One must not be a public sinner (public adulterer, concubine, public homosexual), excommunicated, or interdicted.

- The most important requirement is to have a great desire to receive the Body, the Blood, the Soul, and the Divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ.

You may humbly approach the Communion rail at any time after the Communion of the priest.

Open the mouth wide and extend your tongue smoothly and horizontally. Do not say “Amen.”

One should feel free to leave the pew for communion whenever.

Do not judge your neighbor who abstains from receiving Holy Communion, as there is no obligation to receive it daily. However, “Live in a manner to be able to receive communion every day!” (St. Augustine)

N.B.: In this Church, the faculty to absolve sins is directly granted to the priests by the Holy Father.

The Whole Truth about Fatima: Science and the Facts* by Frère Michel de la Sainte Trinity

Online Source: <https://crc-internet.org/our-doctrine/catholic-counter-reformation/whole-truth-fatima.html#:~:text=The%20Whole%20Truth%20about%20Fatima%20M%20AY%2013%2C,cousins%2C%20Francisco%20and%20Jacinta%2C%20are%20nine%20and%20seven.>

Then She opened Her hands. On May 13, right after announcing that God's grace would comfort the seers, Our Lady had filled them with ineffable graces by the light issuing from Her hands. So also on June 13, the vision of the Immaculate Heart followed right after the promise that it would be Lucy's refuge and the way that would lead her to God.

Here there is a moving resemblance to the works of St. Louis Marie Grignon de Montfort, who in one of his most beautiful canticles attributes to Mary words very similar to what Lucy heard: "She says to me in Her language, when I am in my struggles, Courage, my child, courage; I shall not abandon you."

A new cause for astonishment is that, in the same Light of God, the children were able to see the symbolic expression of their different vocations. After the vision, Francisco was very surprised: "You were with Our Lady", he said to Lucy, "in the light going down to the earth, while Jacinta and I were in the light going up to Heaven." Lucy explained to him the meaning of this. The prophecy that she expressed by her own understanding is noteworthy, for it was fulfilled to the letter:

" 'That is because you and Jacinta will soon go to Heaven', I replied, 'while I, with the Immaculate Heart of Mary, will remain for some time longer on earth.' 'How many years longer will you stay here?' he asked. 'I don't know. Quite a lot.' 'Was it Our Lady who said so?' 'Yes, and I saw it in the light that She shone into our hearts.' Jacinta confirmed the very same thing, saying: 'It is just like that! That's exactly how I saw it too!'"

"I WANT YOU... TO LEARN HOW TO READ"

These words of Our Lady, which Lucy made known immediately — they are found in the report of Father Ferreira —, were very astonishing for Maria Rosa: "What difference does it make to Our Lady whether you know how to read or not?"

On October 11, when Canon Formigao asked Lucy if she was learning to read, she had to say no. "How then", he replied, "can you fulfil the order Our Lady gave you?" Lucy said nothing. She explains in her Memoirs:

"I kept silence so as not to have the blame put on my mother, who had not yet given me permission to go to school. At home they said that I wanted to learn to read out of vanity. Until then, almost no little girls learned to read; school was only for boys. It was only later on that a school for girls opened at Fatima."

In fact Our Lady was looking further ahead, for She was well aware that Her messenger could not learn to read right away. When She declared, "I want you... to learn how to read. Later I will tell you what I want", Our Lady was announcing the great apparitions of Pontevedra and Tuy in 1925 and 1929. The report of Father Ferreira expresses it in a more precise manner: "I want to ask you... to learn to read so I can tell you what I want."

Let us note in passing that we have here a typical example of the perfect concordance between 'Fatima I' and 'Fatima II' [see Part II of this book for an explanation of these terms]. In the message of June 13, the request to go to school (Fatima I) harmonizes perfectly with the announcement of the vocation of Lucy and her future mission (Fatima II); and this request cannot even be explained very well except in reference to that part of the dialogue which remained secret in 1917.

III. THE GREAT TRIAL OF LUCY

"NO ONE IS A PROPHET IN HIS OWN COUNTRY"

"In the course of this month (Lucy relates), the influx of people increased considerably, and so did the constant questionings and contradictions. Francisco suffered quite a lot from all this, and complained to his sister, saying: 'What a pity! If you'd only kept quiet, no one would know! If only it were not a lie, we could tell all the people that we saw nothing, and that would be the end of it. But this can't be done!'"

SANCTUARY LAMP DEDICATION

WILL YOUR LAST WISHES BE HONORED?

Consider these questions: In what church will your funeral take place? What will be the liturgy? Who will make the correct moral decisions for you if you are unable to do so? Do you wish to bequeath to your church?

Do not leave your final arrangements to strangers!

Make a last will, appoint an attorney and make your final desires known!

If you have specific questions, please contact your church or priest.
